GENERAL PROGRAM GUIDELINES AS ESTABLISHED UNDER REVENUE PROCEDURE 2003-9

SEC. 1. PURPOSE

1. These guidelines provide procedures for the Internal Revenue Service's Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) Matching Program. The program is established for payers of Form 1099 income subject to the backup withholding provisions of section 3406(a)(1)(A) and (B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Prior to filing an information return, a Program participant may check the TIN (Taxpayer Identification Number) furnished by the payee against the name/TIN (Taxpayer Identification Number) combination contained in the Internal Revenue Service database maintained for the Program.

2. The IRS will maintain a separate name/TIN (Taxpayer Identification Number) database specifically for the program and will inform the payor whether or not the name/TIN (Taxpayer Identification Number) combination furnished by the payee matches a name/TIN (taxpayer Identification Number) combination in the database.
3. The matching details provided to participating payors, and their authorized agents, will help avoid TIN (Taxpayer Identification Number) errors and reduce the number of backup withholding notice required under Section 3406(a)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code.

SEC. 2. AUTHORITY

1. The Interactive and Bulk TIN (Taxpayer Identification Number) Matching Programs are established under the authority of Revenue Procedure 2003-9. Revenue Procedure 2003-9 and IRC Section 6050W expand the IRS authority provided under Revenue Procedure 97-31, to allow the on-line matching of taxpayer identifying information as provided by payers of income reported on Forms 1099 B, DIV, INT, K, MISC, OID and PATR.

SEC. 3. BACKGROUND

1. Section 3406(a)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) provides, in part, that the payor shall deduct and withhold income tax from a reportable payment if either:
 - a) The payee fails to furnish the payee's TIN (taxpayer identification number) to the payor in the required manner, or
 - b) The Secretary of the Treasury notifies the payor that a TIN (taxpayer identification number) furnished by the payee is incorrect.
2. Section 31.3406(j) – 1(a) of the Employment Tax Regulations provides that the Commissioner has the authority to establish TIN Matching Programs and may prescribe, by revenue procedure or other guidance, the scope, terms and conditions for participating in such programs.
3. Section 31.3401(j) – 1(b) provides that none of the matching details received by a payor through a TIN Matching Program will constitute a notice regarding an incorrect name/TIN combination under §31.3406(d) – 5(c) for the purpose of imposing backup withholding under §3406(a)(1)(B).
4. Section 31.3406(j) – 1(c) provides that §3406(f), relating to confidentiality of information, applies to any matching details received by a payor through a TIN Matching Program. A payor may not take into account any such matching details in determining whether to open or close an account with a payee.
5. Section 6721 provides that a payor may be subject to a penalty for failure to file a complete and correct information return with the Internal Revenue Service.
6. Section 6722 provides that a payor may be subject to a penalty for failure to furnish a complete and correct information statement (payee statement) to a payee. Not including the correct payee TIN on an information return or payee statement is a failure subject to §§6721 and 6722 penalties.

SEC. 4. DISCLOSURE AND PRIVACY

1. IRC 3406 permits the disclosure of taxpayer name/TIN combinations to certain third-party payers. Such disclosure is allowed for reportable payments subject to backup withholding only.

2. IRC 6103 protects the confidentiality of TINs.
3. Third-party payers, and their authorized agents, who participate in the TIN Matching Program must sign an on-line Terms of Agreement (TOA) clause stating they will only attempt to match name/TIN combinations for the types of reportable payments listed in Revenue procedure 2003-9. (See exhibit 3)
4. Failure to adhere to the stated TOA may constitute an unauthorized disclosure and/or violation of the Computer Security Act of 1987.
5. Unauthorized use of the Program could cause payers, their agents and authorized users to become liable for civil penalties under Internal Revenue Code, Section 7431.

SEC. 5. PROGRAM ACCESS AND FEES

1. The TIN Matching Program is accessible via the eServices Registration home page, located at <https://la1.www4.irs.gov/e-services/Registration/index.htm>.
2. Except for scheduled maintenance, users will be allowed to access the system 24 hours a day to submit TINs for matching.
3. The IRS does not currently charge a fee to access the name/TIN database maintained specifically for the TIN Matching Program.
4. The IRS does not currently charge a fee to participate in the TIN Matching Program.

SEC. 12. ABATEMENT OF PENALTIES DUE TO FAILURE TO PROVIDE ACCURATE AND COMPLETE TIN ON INFORMATION RETURNS

1. Section 6721 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that a payor may be subject to a penalty for failure to file a complete and correct information return. Section 6722 of the Internal Revenue Codes provides that a payor may be subject to a penalty for failure to furnish a complete and correct information statement (payee statement) to a payee.
2. Not including the correct payee TIN on an Information Return or payee statement is a failure subject to the §§6721 and 6722 penalties.
3. Section 6724 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that the Service may waive the penalties under §§6721 and 6722 if the filer (payor) shows that the failure was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect. The regulations under §6724 provide that a filer (payor) may establish reasonable cause by showing, among other things, that the failure arose due to an event beyond the filer's control.
4. Section 31.3405(j)-1(d) provides that the Service will not use a payor's decision not to participate in the TIN Matching Program as a basis to assert that the payor lacks reasonable cause under §6724(a) for failure to file a correct Information Return under §6721 or to furnish a correct payee statement under §6722.
5. Participating payors may cite a payee name and TIN match as reasonable cause under §6724(a), if the Service asserts a penalty under §6721 or §6722 of the Internal Revenue Code.
6. The Service will consider a penalty waiver if the participating payor presents documentation of the match in the following manner:
 - a) Payors must provide to the Service a legible copy of the original match transaction for the name/TIN combination on which the penalty has been assessed.
 - b) Penalties must have been assessed after the date of the original match transaction for the name/TIN combination in question.
 - c) Payors must request the abatement of penalty, in writing, citing the use of the TIN Matching Program resulting in a positive match response.
 - d) Payors may only request the abatement of penalties assessed due to a failure to file a correct Information Return. Other penalties assessed under the Information Returns program are not eligible for these abatement procedures.

SEC. 14. TIN MATCHING FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ'S)

1. What is a TIN?

The term "TIN" is defined as the identifying number assigned to a person under Internal Revenue Code, Section 6109. Specifically, a TIN may be a Social Security Number (SSN), Employer Identification Number (EIN), Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN), or Adoption Taxpayer Identification Number (ATIN). A valid Social Security Number may only be issued by the Social Security Administration. An EIN, ITIN or, ATIN may only be obtained through the Internal Revenue Service.

2. What are the requirements for providing a payee TIN to the IRS?

Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 6109(a) (1) provides that any payer required to file an information return must include the payee's correct TIN. IRC 6109(a) (2) requires the payee to furnish their correct TIN to the payer. IRC Section 6109(a) (3) requires a payer to request a payee's TIN and include it in any returns filed with IRS. IRC Section 3406(a) (1) (A) provides that reportable payments are subject to backup withholding if the payee does not provide a correct TIN to the payer. The payer is required to withhold 28% of a reportable payment if the TIN is not provided at the time of the payment. IRS sends a CP2100 or CP2100A, "Notice of Possible Payee TIN Discrepancy", to payers if the TIN/name combination on the information return does not match IRS tax records. Once a payer receives a "Notice of Possible Payee TIN Discrepancy", for a payee, the payer is required to track whether or not another is received within 3 years. If another "Notice of Possible Payee TIN Discrepancy", for that payee is received, the second notice requires the payer to backup withhold on any proceeds disbursed to the payee until IRS gives permission to stop, even if a Form W-9 is provided by a payee. Additional information regarding requirements to provide a payee TIN and, backup withholding guidelines, may be found in IRS Publication 1281 "Backup Withholding for Missing and Incorrect TINs – Including Instructions for Magnetic Tape and CD/DVD Formats".

3. What is a Form W-9?

Form W-9, "Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification", certifies the payee's name and TIN, that the payee is not subject to backup withholding, and they are a U.S. person, including a U.S. resident alien.

4. What is the penalty for a payer who furnishes an incorrect name/TIN to IRS?

IRC Section 6721 provides a payer may be subject to a penalty for failure to file a complete and accurate information return, including a failure to include the correct payee TIN. The penalty is $50 per return, with a maximum penalty of $250,000 per year ($100,000 for small businesses). The penalty for intentional disregard is $100 per return, with no maximum penalty.

5. How does IRS differentiate between an 'invalid' and a 'missing' TIN?

A missing TIN is either completely missing, or contains invalid characters such as alphas or hyphens. An invalid TIN is one that doesn't match IRS records for that name/TIN combination. A TIN not currently issued cannot be found in either IRS or SSA records.

6. Who will be able to use the TIN Matching Program and how will it help me to reduce errors on my payee TINs?

Payers or their authorized agents, who submit Forms 1099-INT, DIV, PATR, OID, MISC and/or B* to IRS may be eligible to enroll in the e-Services TIN Matching program. TIN Matching assists the payer in determining if the payee TIN/name combination contained on their Form W-9, matches the TIN/name combination contained in IRS tax filing records.

NOTE: The TIN Matching program currently cannot enroll payers who do not submit at least one of these six forms, nor employers submitting Forms W-2, to use the TIN Matching system. Payers may only perform TIN Matching for the TIN/Name combinations for income subject to backup withholding and reported on Forms 1099-B, DIV, INT, MISC, OID and/or PATR.

7. What is an authorized agent?

An individual or company contracted to transmit information returns to the IRS on behalf of the payer firm. This would include third party service providers, transmitters, service bureaus, etc. An authorized agent must perform TIN Matching research under the account established by the payer firm through eServices.

8. How does TIN Matching over the Internet work?

Enrolled users may TIN Match in one of two ways:

- a) Interactively – a user can submit up to 25 name/TIN combinations at a time during a session, and receive a response within 5 seconds.
- b) Bulk – users may download .txt files composed of up to 100,000 name/TIN combinations and receive a response from IRS within 24 hrs.

9. What type of response will users receive?

The TIN Matching program provides a numerical response indicator for each match request. The potential responses include:

- '0' - Name/TIN combination matches IRS records
- '1' - Missing TIN or TIN not 9-digit numeric
- '2' - TIN not currently issued
- '3' - Name/TIN combination does NOT match IRS records
- '4' - Invalid request (i.e., contains alphas, special characters)
- '5' - Duplicate request
- '6' - (Matched on SSN), when the TIN type is (3), unknown, and a matching TIN and name control is found only on the NAP DM1 database.
- '7' - (Matched on EIN), when the TIN type is (3), unknown, and a matching TIN and name control is found only on the EIN N/C database.
- '8' - (Matched on SSN and EIN), when the TIN type is (3), unknown, and a matching TIN and name control is found on both the NAP DM1 and the EIN N/C databases.

10. What happens if the name/TIN combination matches IRS records, and I still receive a CP2100 or CP2100A Notice for a specific payee TIN?

IRC Section 6724 provides any penalties under Section 6721 may be waived if the payer shows the failure to file a correct TIN on an information return was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect. Payers who use the TIN Matching system may establish due diligence and reasonable cause if the information contained in their records matches IRS records.

11. Are there any costs to the payer using TIN Matching?

No. At the present time, the IRS does not impose any monetary charges for use of the TIN Matching system.

12. How do I apply to TIN Match?

Application for the TIN Matching program may be made after successful completion of the two-step eServices Registration process. Detailed information about how to register for eServices, and apply for TIN Matching, is available at, <https://la.www4.irs.gov/e-services/Registration/index.htm>.

13. Is use of the TIN Matching program mandatory?

TIN Matching is a free assistance tool developed by eServices as a service to our customers. The use of the program is completely voluntary and, payers do not face the possibility of increased penalties if they do not participate in the program.

14. What are the hours of operation for the TIN Matching system?

Payers will have access to the TIN Matching system 24 hrs a day, 7 days a week. There may be short time periods during the evening or night hours while data files are updated that TIN Matching may be briefly unavailable.

15. How does Interactive TIN Matching work?

Once you have been established as a user on the TIN Matching system, you will log in with the username and password you established during the registration process. Upon login, users must accept the TIN Matching Terms of Agreement. You will then be prompted to enter a TIN Type, TIN, and Name to be matched against IRS records. You may enter up to 25 TIN/Name combinations during each session. Once you enter “Submit”, the system will return the TIN/Name combinations along with the “Match Indicator” to tell you whether or not the combination matched IRS records. You also have the option of entering each TIN/Name combination individually if you want to do a “Print Screen” and file each printout with the payee’s records in order to establish due diligence.

16. How does the Bulk TIN Matching work?

In bulk TIN Matching, you may attach a .txt file with up to 100,000 TIN/Name combinations to be matched. The .txt file will be formatted as follows:

TIN Type (1 = EIN, 2 = SSN, 3 = Unknown)

TIN (9 digits Taxpayer Identification Number)

Name * (up to 40 characters)

Account Number (optional field for your use – up to 20 Alpha/numeric – NOTE: the system will not read this information)

A semi-colon (;) will be the delimiter between fields. Each line of input will signify a new record.

Example:

TIN Type; TIN; Name; Account Number

TIN Type; TIN; Name; Account Number

TIN Type; TIN; Name;

TIN Type; TIN; Name; Account Number

TIN Type; TIN; Name;

If you submit a record without the required fields (TIN Type, TIN, Name), the response you will receive will be Indicator 4, Invalid Request. If you don’t know the TIN Type, enter “3” and the system will check both the SSN and EIN master files. Within 24 hours, the response will be sent to a secure mailbox and an email notification will be sent to you indicating a response is waiting. You will have 30 days to access and download the results file. Once accessed, the results are retained for 3 days before being purged. The same information you sent in the .txt file will be returned with one additional field containing the results indicator.

*The system will only accept limited special characters in the name line for Bulk TIN Matching. Hyphens and ampersands will be accepted. Commas, apostrophes and other special characters should be omitted from the name line. For instance, the name O’Malley & Sons should be input as OMalley & Sons.

17. What happens if I submit just the TIN or the name? Will IRS provide the correct name or TIN that is associated with the information I submit?

You must submit a TIN/Name combination. If you leave either the TIN or name blank, the system will consider it invalid (Indicator 4). Due to privacy issues, IRS will not divulge an entity’s name or TIN.

If you submit the same TIN with various names, or, the same name with various TINs, after four attempts, the system will automatically suspend your access to TIN Matching for 96 hours. This was done to prevent “phishing”.

18. Is there a limit to the number of bulk files I can upload each day?

No. There is currently no limit. Once the system has been fully implemented, and there are many users logged in, the time it takes to upload files may slow somewhat. At this time, e-Services does not plan to restrict the number of file uploads per day for any user.

When naming your .txt file, do not use special characters in the file name. Type the file name in plain fonts, (Courier works best), and place the dot extension directly before the file name extension. Example, a file named TIN Match Vol2 should be saved as TIN Match Vol2.txt. Unacceptable file names, such as TIN.Match.Vol2.txt or TIN_Match_Vol2.txt, may cause your file to be rejected by the system.

19. What is the process for enrolling in TIN Matching?

Initially, users must register on -line with e-Services and will create a User Name, Password and PIN that will allow them to access the system electronically. Once the on-line registration is completed, users receive, at their home address, a confirmation token that they must validate on-line within 28 days of the initial registration. All users within a firm must complete their own registration to have an eServices account established for their individual username and password. Once users are confirmed , the Principal, (person at your firm responsible for completing the TIN Matching application and assigning user roles), will complete the application and all confirmed users may begin using Interactive or Bulk TIN Matching that same day.

20. I am a registered ERO (Electronic Return Originator) with the IRS. After I successfully completed the e-services registration process, I attempted to complete an Application to TIN Match. Why did I receive a message that I was not authorized to use the TIN Matching system?

The TIN Matching Program is solely intended to assist those members of the Third-Party Payor community, and their authorized agents, with meeting their obligation for filing accurate and complete annual Information Return documents. At this time, the program is not available to any individual, firm or organization that does not fall into the category of a Payor or an authorized Payor agent.

21. When will TIN Matching be expanded to include other Form 1099 or Form W2 payment instruments?

Plans for program expansion are actively being pursued. At the present time, payers of Form W-2 income, wishing to validate employee SSNs, should contact the Social Security Administration (SSA) for information on their SSNVS (Social Security Number Verification Service). Interested parties may find more information about this service by visiting: <https://www.ssa.gov/bsowelcome.htm>

22. How may I find out more about the TIN Matching Program?

Potential users are encouraged to review the e-Services home page at, <https://la.www4.irs.gov/e-services/Registration/index.htm>. An On-Line Tutorial provides a full range of information for Interactive and Bulk TIN Matching, as well as other e-Services products.

23. What should I do to secure an accurate TIN from my Payee?

It would be useful to refer to the Instructions for Form SS-4, lines 1 and 2, (<http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/iss4.pdf>) to determine what name may have been submitted to the IRS. Ultimately, the name submitted for TIN Matching should be the legal name from line 1 or the trade name from line 2 if a return using this name has already been filed and accepted. The legal name of the entity will create the best potential to match because IRS maintains prior name controls for an EIN even after a name change has been made.
